

Hazel Quotes her Tender Tennessee Tantalizer

An Eisenhower-Era
Homophile Love Story

Original Text by James "Hazel" McCommiss

Adaptation by Katelyn Petra

Color at home!

"Why did
I have to leave a wife in Tennessee and come to California and get mixed up with a faggot?"

“Two people propositioned me today right here in this house - one offered me $25.”

“I don't have to stay here when lots of people like me - I'm young and attractive - a hell of a lot better lookin than you are.”

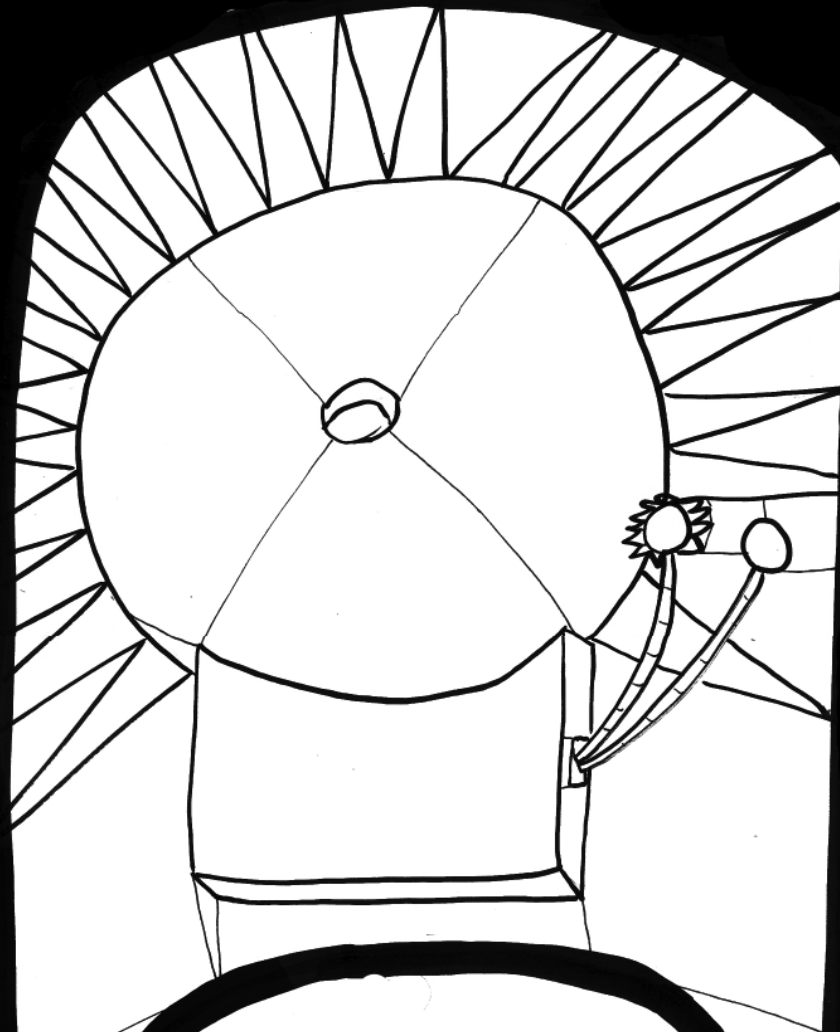

"I'm no fuckin'
good to leave my wife and twin boys."

"I wanna go back and you're gonna give me the money.
Give me two dollars and I'll go."

(45 minutes later, he was ringing the door
bell to beat all hell...)

“Will you let me in?”

"NO!"

Daddy will stand up for me, so F*CK YOU!

However, I was given to understand that everyone else in the house thinks he is good looking.

